MEMORANDUM FOR: W. E. Colby

SUBJECT: State Policy Book

1. Attached is the updated copy of the position papers book for your forthcoming discussion with the Department of State,

2. Per your desires as expressed earlier, the following actions must be accomplished before you sit down with State:

a. The Deputy Directors should have an opportunity to review and critique the entire package. This can be done in either a Management Committee format, or as a separate action. [] has already reviewed an earlier version, but has not yet seen the final update. We are giving him a copy.

b. Assuming changes are necessary as a result of a., as much as two days may be necessary for revising the book.

c. The letter to Dr. Kissinger is to be signed and delivered. This letter is presumably keyed a precise number of days before the conference itself. We need your consideration and decision on this.

d. You instructed that the book be sent to the Department 3 days before the conference. Copies will be sent to Messrs. [] and Cline. Do you desire additional sets sent forward?

3. We have not previously sent the books to the DDCI and the Deputies, because of uncertainty as the final date of the conference and the necessity constantly to be making changes and additions. We are prepared at any time to set the process in

No - It will be shown to State in draft - I'll deliver it to Cline on 22
